5 Hamptons Rosé Wines to Sip This Summer

Lucky for East Enders, the summer's most popular wine—rosé—does a booming business from Hamptons vineyards.

The rosé craze: Who would have thought? What was once akin to a lowly white zinfandel has since become the hippest summer wine. And, while rosé is worthy of year-round drinking, the pink-hued beverage offers a cool, boozy respite from summer's scorching temperatures with its requisite chill. Below, five favorites to try this summer—all from Hamptons wineries.

2013 Bridge Lane Rosé, Lieb Cellar

Vinted from 100% cabernet franc with hints of guava, lychee, and peach blossom, this quintessential summer wine is light-bodied and bone dry—a perfect rosé for skeptics who think pink is overly sweet. In addition to producing its own lines of Bridge Lane wines, Lieb Cellars has earned some serious street cred by creating private labels for Tom Colicchio's Topping Rose House. 35 Cox Neck Road, Mattituck, 298-1942
